Written by Lindsay Price Directed by Chloe Wright	Introducing their boxes	The Voice is hammering unrealistic expectations- morning announcements	Boxes built by words, stories blown out of proportion	You can't escape your reputation & the danger of rumours	The importance fo friends. How does a friendship die?	The dangers of drama and rumours	Finding peace and stillness when the world around you feels overwhelming	How do I become popular? Following others or being yourself?	Boxes can be a safe place to hide from the dangers of the world	Everyone feels alone and everyone feels like they are the only ones that feel that way	What does it mean to have a "girl box?"
